When you travel with Big Story Living, every day is yours to do with as you please. On this journey we will travel to our day trips together and enjoy one walking tour as a group.

We travel and lodge together, and the rest is up to you! You will receive ideas of budget travel experiences in each city, and there is often a fellow traveler to join you, if you like. Amy will offer daily meetups for meals, etc. But your “yes’s” and “no’s” are yours alone. Be free!

Registration is first-come, first-served with only 10 spots available!

A deposit of $750 secures your journey.

Final payment of $1945 will be due September 1, 2024.

When you travel with Big Story Living, you will be encouraged to be brave and set off on your own. This is not mandatory, but it is so, so good. On our last journey, travelers made their way from Florence to Cinque Terre, Sienna, the Italian coast, Pisa and Milan.

On this journey, we will take two group day trips together, but in every city, you are free to explore on your own, as you wish.

Is it safe?

Absolutely! We make wise itinerary choices and leave prepared for all the potential mishaps. We track each other via phone apps and stay connected as a group on WhatsApp.

What does the $750 deposit cover?

The $750 deposit assures your spot on the journey. It is non-refundable after your first travel consultation with Amy, immediately following registration. The deposit will be applied to your total overall cost, making your final payment of $2,215 due September 15, 2024. If you cancel, you will forego anything already purchased that is non-refundable to Big Story Living.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I participate even if I'm not a person of Christian faith or I'm in the middle of deconstructing my faith?

100% yes! Everything offered towards faith is a gift given that you always have the option to take or leave as you need.

Traveling with one eye on the world and the other eye on Jesus continues to be the heartbeat of Big Story Living.

Our journeys are less about guiding you specifically towards faith teachings and theology (actually, there's none of that) and more about providing intentional space and freedom for the Spirit within to inspire and guide you towards exactly what you need to know, see, do and hear each day. Together, we simply slow the pace, turn down the noise, and listen for those inner prompts to turn left or right in every city.

We believe that by practicing being present to the Presence and to ourselves, a typical getaway can be transformed into a bucket list adventure AND a safe and sacred, personal spiritual journey.

When you travel with Big Story Living, every gift offered is fully yours to receive or say, "no thank you."

FAQs

Who travels with BSL?

The variety of our travelers range from women who never dreamed they could explore the world in this way and simply long to have one amazing journey, to others who dive deep into the frequent flyer and travel points game that I teach on some journeys, and become lifelong travelers.

Conversely, some women come to the journey who need a refresh in their faith and space to just breathe and re-center. Others come as skeptics, deconstructing and doubting faith all together. Wherever you are, this journey is for you. No pressure.

The faith elements of this journey will come as Amy sets the table for you to experience wide-open space, as well as through a daily guide sent to you via text as we travel. Included will be prompts and practices you can choose to engage with to enhance your personal journey.

Isn't it uncomfortable to travel with strangers?

You will find like-minded women who are so welcoming. By the time we have communicated and Zoomed before departure, it is a joy to finally meet and explore with new friends.

Because of the freedom offered to each person on the journey, there is a great balance between being together and separate. So far, we have experienced nothing except beautiful friendship and respectful relationship in every way. Everyone understands from the start that they are traveling for freedom. This means we are required to move from city to city together and lodge together. Anything else you choose to do or not do with fellow travelers is completely up to you.

"Amy repeatedly encourages curiosity not only about what we are seeing and experiencing, but what we are noticing inside ourselves as we travel."

Jessica, BSL Journey 2023

FAQs

Do you focus on seeing every tourist site? On BSL journeys we don't travel with the intention of seeing it all. We move into each day with curiosity and openness in lieu of a strict plan. We listen to Jesus, our bodies and our personal needs, allowing them to guide us as our days unfold. Some days we need miles and miles of walking. Other days we need a nap. Some moments call for a second piece of cake and coffee. The pressure is always off, and our senses are always aware as we move at a slower and curious pace and our senses come alive. On this journey, the focus will be on Christmas, but you may explore each city as you wish. The activities you choose can be as broad as what each city has to offer.

What's included in our daily guides? Each morning of the journey you will wake up to a daily guide sent via text from Amy. It will include money saving tips and tricks for the location, group details, opportunities to meet up with the group if you desire, and faith practices that you can incorporate into your day if it feels right.
